"... she has guided me and my family for years, I love working with her"

Biography

Mica M. Renes has been in practice since 1986 as a doctor of naturopathy. She earned her degree in The Netherlands at the Academy for Natural Arts of Healing. She has developed herself as a spiritual teacher, life coach, and mentor. She is an intuitive, an artist, shamanic priestess, and a healer.

She offers private sessions at the Rosebrook Art Center and at her practice in Cincinnati.

At the Rosebrook Art Center she offers the following classes:

"The Artist's Way" guided by the wonderful workbook of the same name by Julia Cameron. Six, two-hour meetings of playing and discovering your innate creativity. You don't have to be an artist to be creative. The state of the world requires a lot of newly implemented creativity. Creativity is the mother of healing, the best relaxation, and the most wonderful source of joy.

Creative Astrology A fun way to learn the basics of astrology, the signs, the planets, earth, fire, air, and water. Print out your own and your families' astrological chart and begin recognizing the signs. Astrology offers one of the best ways to learn to work with symbols; it helps develop the function of the right brain.

Life Study Course For Women An ongoing weekly meeting to support women in the "adventure" of their daily life.

The Basics of Naturopathy What is healing. About food. About relationships, children, friendships. Home remedies. What your body is telling you. Your energy. Accessing your own knowing.
